

Departmental Facility

1. Departmental Library:

The Bengali Department has its own departmental library.

It houses over 500 valuable and important books.

The collection includes texts on literature, language, culture, and criticism.

2. Student Access:

Students are allowed to read books within the department.

They can also borrow books for a specific period as per the rules.

The library provides a quiet and resourceful space for study and research.

3. Digital Facilities:

The department has a computer with a high-speed internet connection.

Students can use it for browsing academic materials, preparing assignments, and conducting research.

This facility helps promote digital literacy and supports students' academic development.
