Outcome of Special Class on Basic Concepts of Accounting and Finance

This collaborative class handled by Dr. Arindam Ghosh on “Basic Concepts of Accounting and Finance” provided new and enriched former knowledge to the students. This session, conducted on the basis of an MOU between R.B.C. Evening College and Panihati Mahavidyalaya has, in spirit, fostered the academic exchange, thus enriching the learning process by means of expert teaching. The interactive nature of the class enabled active student interaction and an effective expounding methodology to core concepts. Hence, this initiative has brought into light the advantages of inter-institutional teamwork and has opened vistas for academic exposure beyond the regular curriculum. The students are inclined toward having more such knowledge-sharing sessions in the future
