Outcome of Seminar on Analysis of Union Budget,2023

Students in the seminar on "Analysis of Union Budget 2023–24" were able to develop a focused appreciation of prominent budgetary provisions and their effects on the economy. The session structured by Dr. Biplab Saha attempted to simplify somewhat complex financial jargon and fiscal strategies into terms easily understood by students. Thereafter, there were active discussions held between the students, which contributed to polishing their analytical and presentation skills. The seminar also motivated students to stay abreast of current economic policies and draw parallels with theoretical learnings. Hence, we may conclude that the seminar proved to be an adequate platform where the intricacies of budget analysis were translated into a more accessible and informative form for the students, thus stimulating academic interest among graduate students in commerce.
