Outcome of Value Added Course on Computer Application

The Value Added Course on Computer Application greatly improved the digital skills and computer proficiency of the students who enrolled. This gave them practical knowledge in applications such as MS Office, data handling, and some basic IT applications related to commerce. The students were able to imbibe a great deal of confidence in using the computer for academic and professional purposes. The course, with the aid of hands-on training and expert guidance by resource persons, enabled the learners to gain both theoretical and practical competence. Also, it has motivated them to go for further skill-based learning to enhance their own employability.
